

Graduation Ceremony 2026

St. Joseph's Anglo-Chinese School joyfully celebrated its 2025–26 Graduation Ceremony on Friday, 5 June, in the school hall. The memorable occasion brought together around three hundred esteemed guests, parents, teachers and graduates in a vibrant, celebratory atmosphere. The event was graced by distinguished alumnus Professor Philip Wong Hon Sum — a world-renowned leader in semiconductor technology, Chair Professor at Stanford University, and Chief Scientist at TSMC — who served as the Guest of Honour alongside school leadership and community representatives.

The ceremony commenced with a dignified flag-raising ceremony and the national anthem, followed by a prayer from Rev. Zaw Aung and a warm welcome address by School Supervisor Ms. Chow Ling Ling Margaret. Following the annual school report presented by Principal Mr. Poon Wing Keung, Professor Wong took the stage to deliver an inspiring address and present the graduation certificates and academic excellence awards to the proud achievers.

In his address, Professor Wong reminded graduates that the future holds limitless possibilities. He encouraged them to seize opportunities, seek guidance humbly from their seniors, and use their talents to give back to society and help those in need. Moving the audience, Form Six graduate Chung Sheung Lung delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing profound appreciation to the school for its nurturing environment, to teachers for their dedicated guidance, and to parents for their unwavering support.

The milestone event concluded with spectacular creative performances that highlighted the school's vibrant spirit, including a captivating drama production by the Primary Section and a beautiful wind ensemble performance by five graduating seniors. The ceremony came to a close with the resounding voices of the school song, providing a grand and fitting finale to an unforgettable chapter in our graduates' lives.

68th School Anniversary

19 March 2026 marked the 68th anniversary of St. Joseph's Anglo-Chinese School, held in conjunction with the feast day of our patron saint, St. Joseph. This special occasion united students, teachers, parents and alumni in a warm and spirited celebration of the school's heritage and shared identity.

The celebration commenced with a Thanksgiving Mass officiated by Rev. Zaw Aung. In his homily, he called upon the school community to seek truth with sincerity and to live out the guiding principle of the school motto, 'Ad Astra, Caritas', in both word and action.

The campus soon came alive with a vibrant array of activities. The day featured our school's Bio-eco Corner and Chinese Medicine Garden exhibition, Red Cross, and the Wind Band. The programme reflected the school's commitment to holistic development. Other highlights included an engaging music performance, a spirited inter-house basketball competition and the ever-popular Teachers' Football

▲ Beaming teachers and staff pose proudly before the friendly football match.

▲ Students erupt into joyful applause, showing massive support for the teachers' teams.

▲ A student conductor leads the school band with focus and precision during a performance.

▲ Teachers show great intensity and teamwork during an exciting football match on the school grounds.

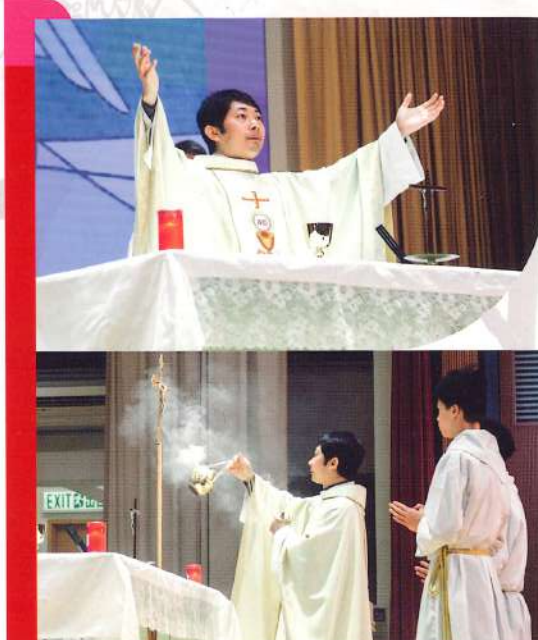

Exhibition Match

Teachers and staff took to the field with great enthusiasm, demonstrating admirable teamwork and sporting spirit, while drawing cheers and laughter from the crowd. The joyful atmosphere was further enhanced by the distribution of ice cream, which was warmly enjoyed by all.

The 68th anniversary celebration was a memorable occasion marked by joy, unity and a deep sense of belonging. It stood as a meaningful tribute to the proud traditions of St. Joseph's Anglo-Chinese School and the enduring inspiration of our patron saint.

Alumni Activity Day 2026

On 21 March 2026, the St. Joseph's Anglo-Chinese School campus was transformed into a vibrant hub of laughter, nostalgia and joy as we welcomed generations of graduates back for Alumni Day. Guided by our inspiring school motto 'Ad Astra, Caritas' the event beautifully embodied our community's pursuit of excellence and the enduring love that unites the Josephian family. It was truly heartening to witness hundreds of familiar faces walking through the gates once again, with many dedicated overseas graduates making long journeys across the globe just to reconnect with their beloved alma mater.

▲ Hands-on creativity shines as a student engraves a custom piece.
▶ Teachers welcome guests alongside the iconic terra-cotta warrior.

▲ Alumni gather together with the next generation, showcasing the lasting continuity of the SJACS brotherhood.

▲ An alumnus explores the school's history timeline wall, revisiting cherished memories.

The afternoon offered a wonderful journey down memory lane as returning alumni explored how the school campus has evolved over the years. A variety of specialized learning facilities were opened for exclusive visits, sparking hours of storytelling and shared reflection. Graduates immersed themselves in our rich heritage within the School Heritage Museum and the Chinese History Classroom for Activities and Artefact Exhibition, marveling at the archival photos and milestones that shaped our identity. Meanwhile, the cutting-edge Smartspace showcased our modern advancements in interactive learning, and the Campus TV studio allowed former students to relive the thrill of media broadcasting. Reflecting the school's strong commitment to sustainability, visitors also flocked to the Bio-Eco Corner to appreciate our thriving, award-winning green sanctuary for animals and plants.

Beyond the campus tours, the true highlight of the day was the enthusiastic revival of school spirit on the sports fields. The courts came alive with energy as alumni teamed up with old friends to play friendly sports matches and challenge their former teachers, turning the games into a heartwarming celebration of lifelong camaraderie and past memories. To commemorate this unforgettable homecoming, a wide array of limited-edition school souvenirs was available for purchase, allowing everyone to take a piece of their school pride back home. Alumni Day 2026 was a powerful reminder that no matter how far our graduates soar among the stars, they will always find love and a welcoming home here.

Musical Theatre Performance – Washroom Wonderland

The school's Musical Theatre Team delivered a remarkable performance in their 2026 production, Washroom Wonderland, held on 22 and 23 May. The first show, staged for Forms 1–5 students, left the audience genuinely taken aback by the creativity, energy and professionalism displayed on stage. From engaging storytelling to expressive performances, the production captivated students and created an unforgettable experience.

The second performance welcomed parents, teachers, and guests from other schools, further showcasing the team's talent to a wider audience. In this third year of production, the student performers continued to exceed expectations, demonstrating impressive growth in both their acting skills and their commitment. Their dedication, teamwork, and passion truly brought Washroom Wonderland to life, marking another milestone for the school's vibrant performing arts scene.

Annual Athletics Meet

Our Annual Athletics Meets were held on 4 May 2026 and 15 May 2026 at Wan Chai Sports Ground. The two exciting days featured a wide range of track and field events, with students demonstrating their strength, speed, and determination as they competed.

The atmosphere was filled with energy as cheers and applause echoed throughout the venue. Blue House emerged as the Overall Champion with Yellow House winning the Best Cheering Award. The individual champions were:

Grade A Champion: Chan Pak Ho (F.5D)

Grade B Champion: Wong Man Hei Max (F.3A)

Grade C Champion: Yam Hin Ngai (F.1D) & Kwok Pak Hei (F.1A)

Wong Man Hei Max (F.3A) showed excellent performance by breaking the record in Grade B Javelin this year.

Congratulations to all the winners! Throughout the events, students displayed excellent sportsmanship and a strong passion for athletics. Spectators also showed enthusiastic support for their houses, creating a vibrant and encouraging environment for all participants

▲ Strong bonds are on display as graduating Form 6 students and faculty capture a meaningful moment together on the sports field.

English Week

English Week was a vibrant and enjoyable celebration filled with interactive activities that brought language learning to life. From the English Café to exciting booth games, crime-themed board games, and a lively concert, students engaged enthusiastically in a week full of fun, creativity, and communication.

The English Café, held in the covered playground, welcomed students with a delightful mix of international treats and engaging table activities. Featuring specialties from Chinese, French, German, Italian, and Japanese cuisines, the café created a warm and inviting space where students could bond over food while practising English in a relaxed and social setting.

The covered playground also hosted a variety of game activities, including booth games and crime board games. Students tested their spelling in the Spellathon, challenged themselves with tongue twisters, and sharpened their thinking through word search and Scrabble. The crime-themed board games added an extra thrill, encouraging students to use their English skills while solving mysteries and working collaboratively with friends. Participants were rewarded with "Well-Done Scheme" reward cards and small gifts, making the experience even more exciting.

In addition, the Word Search and Penmanship Competition, held throughout the week in English lessons, gave students the opportunity to demonstrate their focus, creativity, and language skills.

The highlight of the week was the English Week Concert in the school hall. Principal, teachers and students took to the stage to showcase their talents through music and performances, celebrating language, creativity, and school spirit. The event brought the school community together and left the audience inspired and entertained.

English Week successfully fostered a dynamic environment for language learning, leaving students with joyful memories and a deeper appreciation for the power of English.

▲ Students are intrigued as they listen to a sharing about Italian food culture.

▲ Students listen attentively as they learn about German food culture.

▲ The audience is mesmerized by the captivating performance on stage.

▲ Musical talents collaborate to mark the grand finale of the English Week.
